

Navigating Care Beyond Diagnosis

David Kessler, nationally recognized speaker, author and, vice president of patient support care service, Citrus Valley Health Partners, Los Angeles, Ca. His first book, The Needs of the Dying, received praise from Mother Teresa and has been published in more than eleven countries worldwide. He co-authored two best-selling books, Life Lessons and On Grief and Grieving, with the legendary Elisabeth Kübler-Ross. Mr. Kessler has served as member of the National Education and Healthcare Advisory Committee and Los Angeles City Advisory Council. Mr. Kessler is an EPEC-certified trainer for AMA education for physicians on end-of-life care.

