SATURDAY EVENING,

DAVID KESSLER

Theodore and Mina Bargman Scholar

will speak on

“LIFE LESSONS-Love, Healing and Forgiveness”

The co-author of the widely-acclaimed best seller, Life Lessons, with Elisabeth Kubler-Ross, David Kessler has helped thousands of men, women and children face life and death with peace, dignity and courage. His experiences have taken him from Auschwitz to Mother Teresa's Home for the Dying Destitute in Calcutta, India. He has worked with next of kin and survivors of the Aspen and Singapore Airlines crashes and helped Elizabeth Taylor, Jamie Lee Curtis and Carrie Fisher when their loved ones faced life-challenging illnesses.

Kessler's newly-revised first book, The Needs of the Dying: a guide for bringing hope, comfort and love to life's final chapter, has been published in over 11 countries worldwide. Kessler teaches therapists, doctors and nurses on grief and loss and leads a support group for people with cancer called "The Bogeyman in the Closet".

A nationally and internationally known lecturer and leader of community forums, he has been featured on CNN-Cross Fire, NBC, MSNBC, PBS and "Entertainment Tonight".

Join us as we prepare for the High Holy Days by learning what David Kessler can teach us about life. After his presentation, David Kessler will sign copies of his books at a 9:30 pm Oneg.

A 10:00 pm Selichot service will follow.
